Brief summary of the project idea (max 800 characters)

Actions of culture, gastronomy and art around the Mediterranean. Be part of it!

The project involves Mediterranean areas which have special features (culture, natural, man-made environment, history, architecture, tradition, gastronomy, events). The combination of these characteristics in each region can create a complete image of Mediterranean culture and simultaneously create an attractive high quality destination, which offers the opportunity of alternative / cultural tourism development.

The first phase of the Project was implemented during the previous programming period (Local Approach Program LEADER Axis 4 of the RDP 2007-2013). The aim was to create a common cultural action for Mediterranean people, through the enhancement of regions that have an important cultural and gastronomic stock and interesting natural and social environment. The ultimate goal is the establishment of institutions and events in the participating regions as well as effective networking of regions through partnerships and exchange.
