

"UPDATE of the WORKING PAPER ON THE EVALUATION OF NATIONAL RURAL NETWORK PROGRAMMES" Intervention Logic Germany

Objectives Indicators Impact (measured on the basis of the qualitative results): the network forms a stable framework for the Networking within the framework of ELER by implementation of ELER collecting, processing, dissemination and sharing new development approaches and project ideas are of results, experiences, approaches and successful, nationally known development know-how between all involved in the transfer of know-how to improve the conditions for the development of rural areas and interested the development of regional innovation carriers / operators, establishing a network of – the basis for cooperation (cooperation) of the ELER rural space stakeholders have improved the exchange of experience and expertise has improved 1. gathering, processing and disseminating findings in rural development Result: 2. best practice to a wider circle of actors to make 1. Output indicators provide quantitative results analysis, and to support their implementation, 2. specific evaluation questions focus: self-evaluation of 3. facilitate the exchange of expertise the network organizer 4. cooperation between different areas and 3. determining the quality and impact through interviews: institutions to initiate and accelerate rural ELER program coordinators of the states development economic and social partners 5. cooperation of the national network with EU experts in rural development networks selected players in rural development 1. provision of information and service offers Output indicators (quantitative measurement usually on 2. identification and analysis of transferable the basis of the number) approaches 1. involvement of relevant groups and institutions in the 3. exchange of experience and expertise NLR 4. training programs 2. project analysis 5. support transnational and inter-territorial 3. events cooperation 4. thematic technical working groups 6. provide information on the network 5. advisory support 7. public relations 6. documentation 7. information on trans-national, inter-territorial cooperation 8. know-how transfer Inputs 9. initiation of cooperation financial Activities ( 10. information support – personnel material costs