

Coronavirus: European Commission's support to EU's agri-food sector

Since the beginning of the COVID-19 crisis, various measures [1] were adopted by the Commission to support the agri-food sector.

These include the extension of the deadline for CAP payment applications, increased state aid and 'green lanes' for continuous flow of food products across the EU.

More recently, seasonal workers (who are critical for the agri-food sector) have been included in new guidelines [2] to ensure free movement of critical workers.
