Asha Ismail Mohamud
Members:

The Cooperation Group for Ethnical Associations in Sweden

The Cooperation works through a Board of Representatives, elected by the members of the national associations with the assistance of a head office, situated in Stockholm.

SIOS is constituted of 21 national associations, representing approximately 350 local associations and 75 000 members throughout Sweden.
Objectives

SIOS has three main objectives:

- To work with minority issues like mother language, culture and education;

- To pursue a diversity policy that mainstreams the entire society and to strengthen the cooperation for the Members common interests.

- This work is done by raising opinion by communication, statements, education and different projects.
SIOS

SIOS

Cooperates with other ethnical and Swedish associations.
